

RICK SCOTT
GOVERNOR

CROSSING GUARD APPRECIATION DAY

WHEREAS, each and every school day, thousands of dedicated individuals whom we call Crossing Guards spend countless hours assisting our children across busy streets as they arrive and depart from school; and

WHEREAS, local governments place top priority on child safety and recognize that education plays a critical role in ensuring the safety of our children and the Crossing Guards who assist them on their way to and from school; and

WHEREAS, Crossing Guards provide an invaluable service to our communities and deserve special recognition for their tireless efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rick Scott, Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby extend greetings and best wishes to all observing February 3, 2012 as Crossing Guard Appreciation Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 20th day of January, in the year two thousand twelve.
